Benjy The Bottle here - live from behind the scenes of Circuit de la Conoco.

Also known as the "Goers Gauntlet," Circuit de la Conoco is home to the world's first-ever Goers Grand Prix. Spanning nearly 2 miles, many spectators consider it the 8th wonder of the world for its gravity-defying turns and downright absurd obstacles.

From the Mud Pit of Sloths to the Bubble Gum Graveyard, it's a shot of adrenaline from start to finish and is sure to be a race you don't want to miss. But don't take it from me, let's see what the Goers have to say.

THE COURSE

A WORD FROM THE GOERS

"AFTER YOUR FIRST TEST RUN, WHAT'S YOUR INITIAL REACTION?" – BENJY THE BOTTLE

GUS

"I've driven some wild terrain. Seen some wild things. But this. This is controlled chaos. I'm here for it."

GIORGIO

"Giorgio shows no emotion. I am a rock. How's my mustache? Don't ruffle my feathers."

GERTRUDE

"A seriously sneaky course. Reminds me of my days training on the snake farm."

GILLY

"I mean, it's a work of art—a masterpiece if you will. Truly an engineering marvel."

GLENDRA

"Gnarly with a capital N."

GILBERT

"Don't get me wrong, it's fast. But I'm built for speed. This is my playground."
